This Anti-Bullying Week, let's come together and reach out to stop bullying.

Monday 14th to Friday 18th November

#AntiBullyingWeek #ReachOut

BY BEING
THE CHANGE
YOU WANT
TO SEE

PEACE BE WITH YOU

And also with you

Our patron Andy Day has some exciting news to share about Anti-Bullying Week 2022...

During anti-bullying week we will be focusing on these Christian and British Values.

Is it Bullying?

When someone says or does something unintentionally hurtful and they do it once.

That's RUDE

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they do it once.

That's MEAN

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they keep doing it even when you tell them to stop or show them that you're upset.

That's BULLYING

Speak to other people!

No Sometimes Yes

If someone spreads stories about someone else, can this be bullying?

Bullying can happen in the virtual world, that is, on the internet, as well as in the real world.

Bullying involves hitting or pushing.

If someone ignores another person and encourages others to do the same, this is bullying.

Bullying involves stealing someone's things or messing around with them.

Only children bully.

People who complain about being bullied can't take a joke.

Bullies are strong, confident and popular.

Some people deserve to be bullied.

THE CHANGE AND YOU WANT

REACH OUT TO SOMEONE YOU TRUST IF YOU NEED TO TALK.

REACH OUT WITH KINDNESS AND OFFER TO HELP.

IF YOU SEE CONFLICT OR BULLYING, REACH OUT WITH KINDNESS AND TELL A TRUSTED ADULT.

Reflection

We are all different, but we are all capable of friendship, sharing and respect.

If we respect others, then they will respect us in return. That's how friendship and how sharing works.

We are all different, but we are all together in one school family.

Think to yourself now about how you will show respect for others today and celebrate and accept our differences.

We all have our part to play in building up a family, community and school where people feel happy, respected and accepted.

Lord God,

We remember those times when we felt happiest and most loved.

Help us to make our family, community and school a happy place.

Help us to reach out to others if we are being bullied or we see others being bullied.

Help us to say no to bullying, and yes to respect.

Amen.

We all have our part to play in building up a family, community and school where people feel happy, respected and accepted.
