Final Thought

As you go about your lives today, make a special effort to put other people before yourself. Do the right thing and play your part in life, no matter how small you think you might be. If we all take those small steps WE can make a huge difference.

CARING FOR EVACUEES IS A NATIONAL SERVICE

Propaganda

I think that the women were not as happy as they were shown on the pictures because the government used the pictures as propaganda to persuade people to see the children as happy and safe. I think the women who looked after the children were not as happy as they were shown on the pictures because the government used the pictures as propaganda to persuade people to see the children as happy and safe.
