World Religions by percentage

Nathan is 6. He designed a mug for World Peace.

Can you see he has drawn a flower, a globe and a person who is 'half black and half white'

Nathan says: 'Let's all live in peace and share our world.'

“In this idea, all the different religions light up the world and make it possible for everyone to see clearly. I believe that we can share one world even if we are all different. We need to talk to each other about our differences, and keep the peace” Toni, 11.

Every one loves the same!

Let the Lord be with you!

God the of World is light our

Every one loves each other!

Bluss each Other

Love every one.

God, you made us all different and all human.
Please guide us in our lives in the way of peace.

Help us to be peacemakers.

Show us how to live in harmony.

Save us from conflict and arguments.

Guide us as we try to build a better world together.

Amen
