Tolerance

All of this is called tolerance-accepting that people have differences and not falling out with them about it. Being tolerant and accepting people's differences is an important part of our British values.

Tolerance means showing respect for the

- Race
- Religion
- Age
- Gender
- Opinions

of other people or groups.

British Values

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

- I know my behaviour, actions and words can affect others
- I understand and respect that not everyone is the same as me and everyone needs to be treated as an individual
- I know that life is not the same for everyone
- I understand that people's faiths and beliefs are different, and I respect that

Can I be friends with someone who doesn't believe the same things that I do?

Watch this film about some birds not being tolerant.

- Which characters were not being tolerant in the film?
- Why weren't they being tolerant?
- How do you think the big bird felt?
- What could the little birds have done to make the big bird feel welcome?

How will you show tolerance?

Think about how we can show tolerance and acceptance of differences to everyone who is part of our school family and community? Does anyone have any ideas?

Dear God,

We celebrate the ways in which we are different.

Thank you that you have made each of us a one-off, and that you love us.

Our fingerprints are a reminder that we are unique.

Help us to value and celebrate the uniqueness of others.

Help us to be comfortable with difference and to remember that deep down, we are all the same on the inside and are all created in your image.

Help us to be tolerant, understanding and accepting.

Help us never to think that discrimination, hatred or prejudice is OK.

Give us the courage to challenge any prejudices we may hold.

Help us to be open to becoming and growing more tolerant.

Amen.
