ALWAYS RIGHT

LIFE'S MOST PERSISTENT AND URGENT QUESTION IS,
'WHAT ARE YOU DOING
FOR OTHERS?'

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

POINTS
OF LIGHT

"Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about the things that matter."

— Martin Luther King Jr.

"I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character."

Martin Luther King, Jr.

- What do you think Martin meant by 'the content of their character'?
- What do you think others would say was the content of your character?
- Would you be pleased to hear what they said about your character?
- Could you try to make peace with someone whom you disagreed with, without getting angry or even violent?

Reflection

Do you try to treat everyone fairly?

Who is your neighbour and how might you help them to make their life better?

How can you show love towards each other this week?

What is your dream for our world?

Be The Change
YOU WISH
to See in the WORLD

These hands were made for kindness

My heart was made for love

My words speak my compassion

My eyes see a chance for me to make a difference to someone

So everyone knows they belong and no one feels alone (hug hands together)

AMEN

God, give us strength of body to keep walking for freedom.

God, give us strength to remain nonviolent.

Today, we pray that we have the courage to stand up for what is right, even when others make it difficult for us.

Amen.

After Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was killed in 1968, activists and lawmakers worked for over 15 years to declare a holiday in his honor.
