This week we are going to focus on the story of Philip and Nathanael.

In what ways do you feel Philip and Nathanael were different?

YEAR 6 CLASS WORSHIP

Philip and Nathanael were the best of friends. However, they had very different personalities. That's sometimes the way with best friends. It is sometimes even what makes people best friends. Philip was always on the go: an action-packed sort of man, not one for sitting around. He had things to do, people to meet, practical problems to solve. Nathanael, in contrast, was a quieter sort and more thoughtful. He was much more likely to be sitting around and thinking. He paused before he spoke and spoke before he acted.

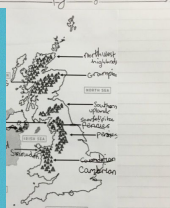

What do you feel are the qualities of a good friend?

"It's lovely to have so many new little faces in the village - regular wild bunch I've heard!" XXXX trilled with a smile that lit the whole face.

"G'pose 'n's best 'new ew' me. He ent g'w' no place now as n's settled 'er." XXXX snorted impatiently.

"Thanks Miss...Missus, I'll do my best to be good!" XXX said timidly in barely more than a whisper.
