Holocaust Memorial Day 27 January

Be the light in the darkness

Dear God,
In a world that can sometimes seem dark and lonely ,
May we be like Jesus, the light of the world and shine like candles bringing joy and hope into each other's lives.
We remember all those who experienced the Holocaust, both those that died and those that survived.
Help them all find peace. And help us to always be ready to stand up to cruelty. Help us to be courageous, respectful and kind, so such things can not happen again. Amen

Reflection

When it comes to online activity, there are some similarities to everyday life!

If you were walking down the street, you wouldn't get into a strangers car, accept gifts from strangers or leave with someone you have just met. If anything makes you feel the following:

Confused
Scared
Bad

You have the right to say NO whether it is online or offline!

WHAT STRATEGIES ARE THERE TO KEEP OURSELVES SAFE ONLINE?

First of all, we are just going to look at an online resource that will ask us questions about our online activity. I want you to think about what you would do in that situation.

When do you think this propaganda poster was released to the public? Explain why by using your graph!

WAS IT NECESSARY FOR EVACUEES TO BE EVACUATED DURING WWII?

The propaganda poster was published in Britain. It is a black and white poster with a woman and a child. The text on the poster is: 'DON'T do it. Mother. THE CHILDREN SEE THEY ARE'.

I think it was necessary for evacuees to be evacuated during the war because it was dangerous to live in a city and in the towns. The children were sent to the countryside and they were safe. And the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
Be with us all,
Now and forever more.
