LIFE'S MOST PERSISTENT AND URGENT QUESTION IS,
'WHAT ARE YOU DOING
FOR OTHERS?'

POINTS
OF LIGHT

"Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about the things that matter."

— Martin Luther King Jr.

"I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character."

Martin Luther King, Jr.

- What do you think Martin meant by 'the content of their character'?
- What do you think others would say was the content of your character?
- Would you be pleased to hear what they said about your character?
- Could you try to make peace with someone whom you disagreed with, without getting angry or even violent?

Reflection

Do you try to treat everyone fairly?

Who is your neighbour and how might you help them to make their life better?

How can you show love towards each other this week?

What is your dream for our world?

Dear God,

Thank you for Martin Luther King and for everything he did to make the world a fairer, better place.

Thank you that we are all different and all special.

Thank you that the world is full of variety, which makes it wonderful.

Please help us all to stand up for the things that are right and good.

Please help us to aim to make the world better for everyone.

Amen.

Be The Change

WORLD

Each one of us can make a difference.
Together we make change.
