For example, if you want to keep your desk organised (being just one-off clear), you need to build a habit around it.

Creating a habit of putting your work stuff away, keeping your files organised, and drawers clutter-free will take some time, and requires certain actions to be taken regularly. All those activities, such as clearing your desk every day after you've finished working, reviewing your files once a week, etc., need to be scheduled.

Setting up habits is more complex than achieving outcome-oriented goals. Often, habits will consist of multiple actions that need to be performed regularly in order for the system to work. For instance, to keep your desk organised you may need to:

MATTHEW 18

UNFORGIVING SERVANT

BIBLE STORY

FORGIVENESS

"Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times."

-Matthew 18:21-35

"The Lord has forgiven you,
so you also must forgive."

COLOSSIANS 3:13

Woman's Day

Be kind to one another,
tenderhearted, forgiving
one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

Ephesians 4:32

Connect Us

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who is in heaven
Hallowed be your name
Your Kingdom come
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven
Give us today our daily bread
Forgive us our sins
As we forgive those who sin against us
Lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil
For the kingdom the power and the glory are yours
Now and forever

Amen

Reflection

How might you mend a broken friendship?

What kind of things do you need to say sorry for?

How can you show forgiveness to others this week?

Dear Lord,
Thank you for today's Bible story about forgiveness.
Thank you that if we say sorry to you, you give us a fresh start.
Please help us to be forgiving to everyone here in our school.
Amen.
