'That they shall have life, life in all its fullness' John 10:10

vision for Child
Life in all its fullness;
Our prayer for
every heart,
The will to make it

- You have brown hair
- Wear glasses
- Have a brother or sister
- Like football
- Can speak another language
- You like swimming in the sea!
- Born in this country
- Know what you want to be when you're older

So what else makes up your personal identity?

- Groups or clubs that you belong to scouts, rugby, choir...
- What your interests or talents are film, dance, speed stacking....
- What things are important to you.
- What your hopes are for the future.
- Which people are important to you.
- Your religion
- The languages that you speak.
- Which country you are from.

Time for another game – Let's play 'Thumbs up, Thumbs down'

I'm going to show you some words on the board – if you think that thing is important to you, if it is something you value, then give me a thumbs up – if not, it's thumbs down.

Hard work Honesty Resilience Caring Kindness Laziness Rudeness Fun Ambitious Hurtful

We have talked about personal values, but can a country have values?

We all live in Britain, can you remember our British values?

WHAT ARE THEY?
AND WHAT DO THEY MEAN?

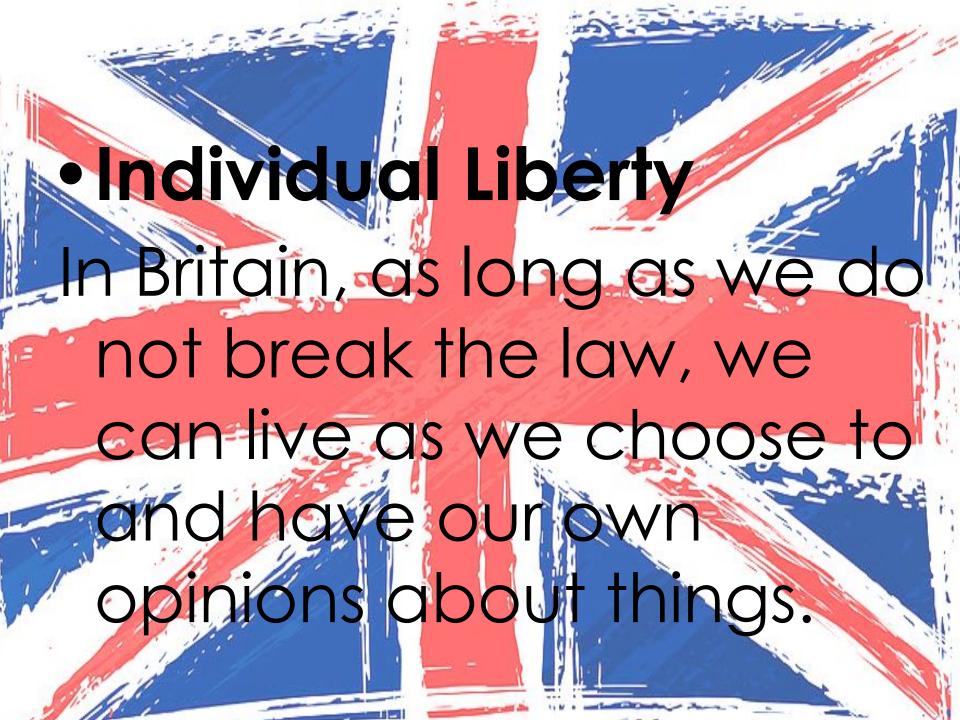

In Britain we accept that other people might have different beliefs than ours and they may believe in different religions.

- Mutual Respect

We might not always agree with other people, but we try to show respect for their thoughts and feelings.

We can give respect to others and we can expect other people to show us respect.

Dear Lord,

I pray to you above, To help me live each day with love, To be respectful when I play, and speak with honesty in all I say, Give me courage and the might, To stand up for what's good and right, Help us show the true meaning of equality, And give us the dedication to follow these values constantly.
