You might think that Easter is all about SPRING
Things springing to life, once again, in the spring.
But Easter is less about new life in spring
Than springing to life forever!

HOLY COMMUNION

“DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME.”

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.

John 13:34

Jesus said:

“I have come that you might have life,
life in all its fullness.”

John 10:10

Life in all its Fullness

Reflection

Think of what you know about the Easter story.

Imagine how Jesus must have felt telling his special friends, the disciples, he would be leaving them soon.

Then think of what Jesus told the disciples about loving others.

Can we be like the disciples and can we treat everyone as equals?

How can we live life in all its fullness?

Dear God,

Thank you for the special time of Easter.

Please help us to put others first,
to treat everyone as equals,
to love others as you love us
and live life in all its fullness.

Amen.

God made you and God made me, He made
the world for us to see.
God loves you and long ago,
He sent his Son to tell us so.
Jesus showed us many things, To love and share
and dance and sing.
To learn and pray, to help and care, He promised he'd always be there. He died
but then came back to life,
let's celebrate for he's alive!

Amen.”

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a landscape. On the left, a multi-colored rainbow arches across the sky. The sky is a bright blue and contains several fluffy white clouds. In the upper right corner, a large, bright yellow sun is partially visible. The foreground is a lush green field with several stylized flowers in various colors (yellow, pink, blue, and white) with green stems and leaves. The entire scene is framed by a solid purple border.

Give me love in my heart, keep me serving
Give me love in my heart, I pray
Give me love in my heart, keep me serving
Keep me serving 'til the break of day
