Do Great Things for God

Queen Elizabeth II

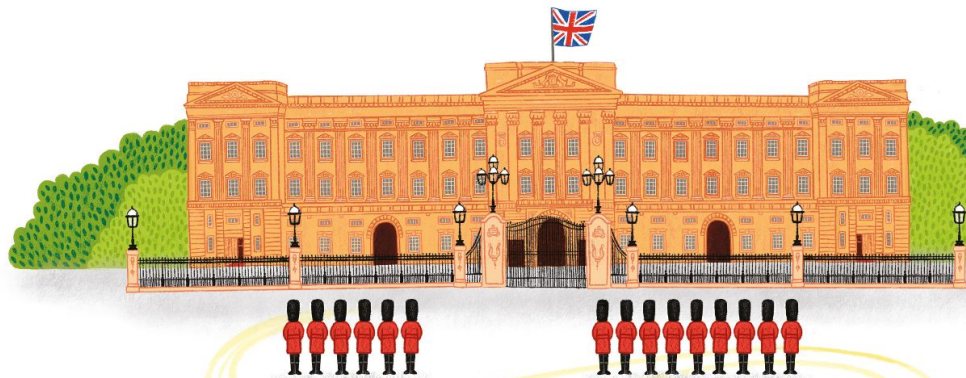

The Queen Who Chose to Serve

Alison Mitchell

Illustrated by Emma Randall

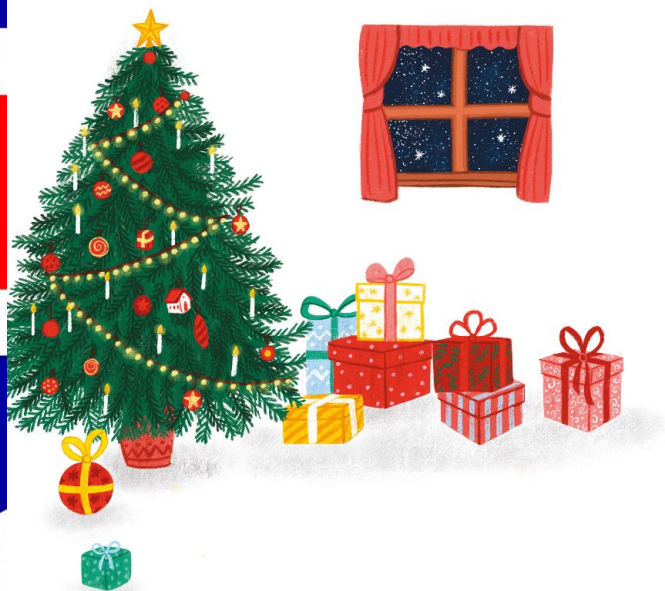

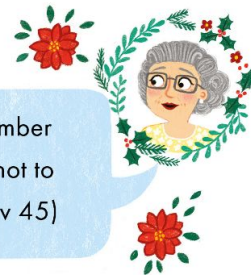

"I rely on my faith to guide me ... I know that the only way to live my life is to try to do what is right ... to give of my best in all that the day brings, and to put my trust in God." (2002)

"God sent into the world a unique person — neither a philosopher nor a general (important though they are) — but a Saviour, with the power to forgive." (2011)

"This is the time of year when we remember that God sent his only Son 'to serve, not to be served'." (2012, quoting Mark 10 v 45)

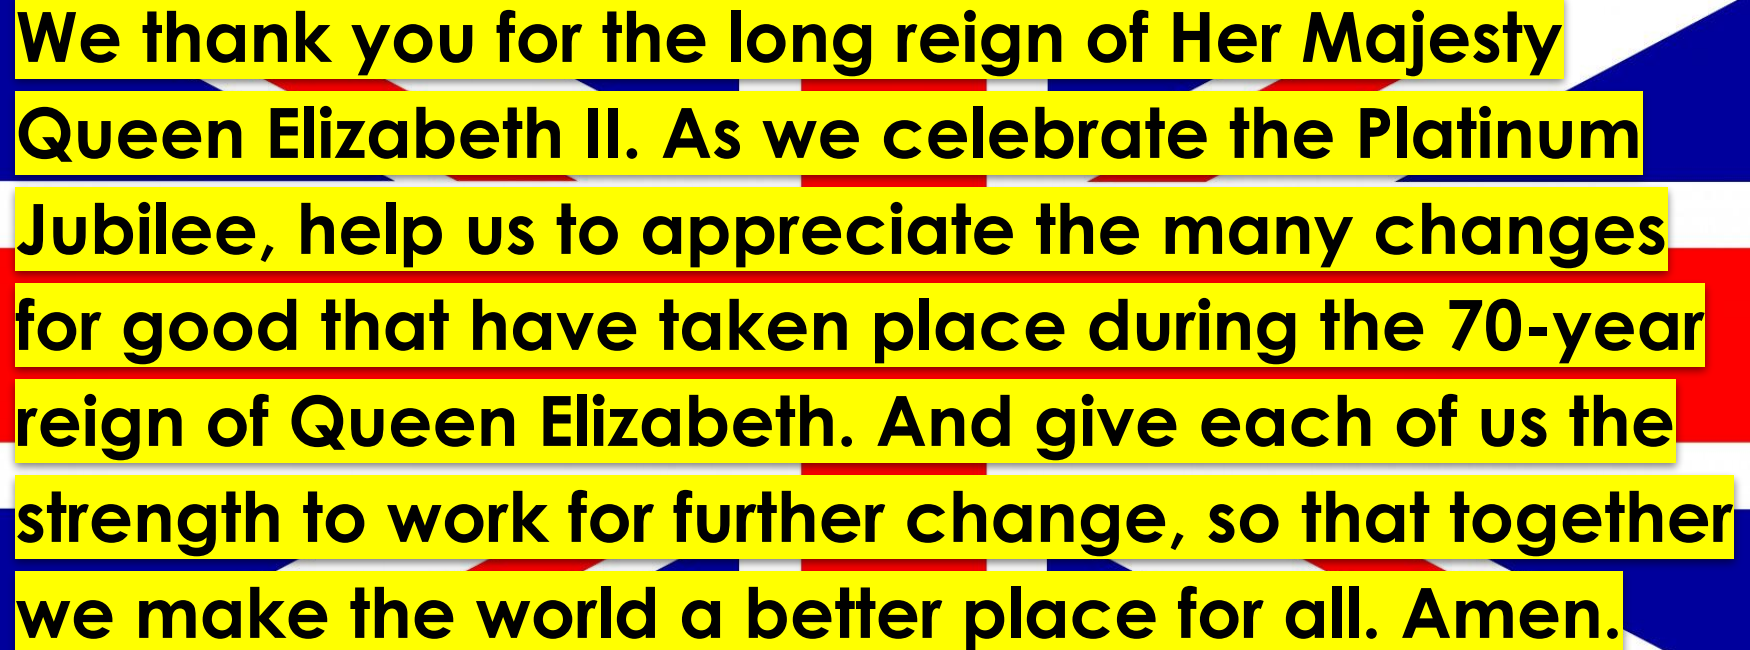

"For me, the life of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, whose birth we celebrate today, is an inspiration and an anchor in my life." (2014)

Reflection

- Let's take a moment to think about the Queen and her 70 years of service to our country.
- Think of all of the changes to our country in that time
- Think about how we can make a difference to our school, community and country by serving others and welcoming everyone

We thank you for the long reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. As we celebrate the Platinum Jubilee, help us to appreciate the many changes for good that have taken place during the 70-year reign of Queen Elizabeth. And give each of us the strength to work for further change, so that together we make the world a better place for all. Amen.

Thy Kingdom
Come
