

Transition for SEND pupils

The school ensures that transition for all pupils is carefully planned. Children attend visits to their new school or to St Bartholomew's. Staff complete transition meetings and hold discussions about individual pupils to ensure that the needs of all pupils are met.

Children with SEND are fully supported. In addition to a detailed discussion with the transition school, records are shared, children are supported with their visit and additional resources may also be made and shared.