4th March 2020

Book Week

The week is going well and the children have had some great activities. Remember that children can come in fancy dress/ non uniform on Friday for a fine of £1. The staff too! The money will go towards books for the children. The book fair is still here and Year 6 will be selling books Thursday and Friday morning on the main corridor. We thank you for all your support.

Reading

Reading is vital for all children of any age. It supports learning across all curriculum and opens up the children to the world. Please continue reading with your children at home- whatever their age!

Parents Consultations

We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible on Tuesday 10th and Thursday 12th March.

Brexit- Be Prepared

If you live in the UK after moving from another country you may need to apply for settled status. If you need any advice about this please ask at the office.

"Excellent attendance is vital for children to flourish and achieve"

Attendance last week was 95.5% this is good but still needs improving. Please bring your children to school as much as possible and only keep them home if they are too ill to attend. A cough or cold is no reason to be absent.

Reception- Mrs Ingleson

We are enjoying book week and have enjoyed listening to lot of different pirate stories. On Monday we had a visit from an amazing storyteller. The children listened really carefully to the stories and joined in with the actions and songs. On Friday the teachers in Reception will be dressed as pirates we cannot wait to see your costumes!

Stars of the week: Class 1 Phoebe

Class 2 Anayah I

Class 3 Divine

Year 2 Miss Ross

This week children have thought about what makes a good friend and the importance of being kind. They had a great time when they had a visit from a storyteller as part of book week.

Congratulations to our stars of the week:

Class 7 -Lewis- for improved attitude and good behaviour.

Class 8- Anthony- for trying hard with reading

Class 9- Roni- for improving in reading

Year 3-Mrs Smith

In year 3, this week we have enjoyed taking part in fun activities based on The Tudor Spy. We also had a visit from a famous author.

Stars of the week: Class 10 Casey J

Class 11 Levi A

Class 12 Kayla S

Year 4- Mr Waters

This week, Year 4 have been celebrating book week. We have been reading a non-fiction book called 'How to Live Like a Stone-Age Hunter'. It is helping us understand more about life in the Stone Age, as well as helping us learn interesting facts to help us with our History lessons. In Science lessons, we have been testing which material makes the best book.
