BOOK WEEK

WORLD
BOOK DAY

3 MARCH 2022

25 YEARS

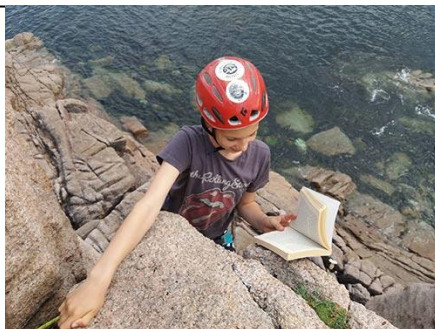

As part of celebrations to mark World Book Day across the UK, we are doing lots of special things in school across the week. We have authors and storytellers invited into school to give children inspiring workshops and we want you all to get involved at home as well!

On Friday 4th March, we are inviting you to dress up as your favourite characters for World Book Day or come to school in non-uniform. Donations of £1 can be paid to the class teacher or the office and this money will go towards new books for school for all the children to read.

On this newsletter are various exciting and engaging activities you can do at home to promote a love of reading. Please feel free to have fun with these activities and we would love to see all your hard work. Please send all your pictures to reading@stbartsleeds.org.uk with the heading World Book Day.

ACT IT OUT

Can you recreate the story you've read at home using a range of props and materials to set the scene. Can you do certain actions such as jumping, walking on the spot, miming climbing etc. to remember different characters?

EXTREME READING

Can you take a photo reading in extreme, funny or unusual places?

Try Google and search 'extreme reading' for some inspiration.

Take a photo and send it to us! (Of course be sure not to do anything too dangerous!).

CHARACTER DRAW

Can you describe and draw a book character to your partner who has to guess who you are drawing?

#SHELFIE COMPETITION

Could you take a photo of yourself reading at home?

Email them back to school and we can guess the reader!

NIGHT TIME STORIES

Or maybe you could curl up with a book and read to someone at home. Get a warm drink and maybe some treats for you both to enjoy as you read.
