Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, in Baptism You called us by name and made us members of Your family, the Church. Help all people to know their vocation in life and to respond by living a life of holiness. For Your greater glory and for the service of Your people, raise up dedicated and generous men who will serve as priests for the Church of Hexham and Newcastle. Send Your Spirit to guide and strengthen our communities, our seminarians and all who are discerning their vocation. Amen.

Glory to God. Glory to God. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace on earth, peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly king, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand,
the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full, are full of your glory.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes, who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest.

Jesus, Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

First reading: Acts 13:14, 43b-52

‘Behold, we are turning to the Gentiles.’

In those days: Paul and Barnabas went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. Many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, as they spoke with them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

The next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began to contradict what was spoken by Paul, reviling him. And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, ‘It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, “I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.”’ And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spreading throughout the whole region. But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district. But they shook off the dust from their feet against them and went to Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Response: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 13a, 14b-17

‘The Lamb will be their shepherd and will guide them to springs of living water.’

I, John, looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands.

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, ‘These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.’

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord.

I know my sheep and my own know me.

Alleluia.

Gospel Reading: John 10:27-30

‘I give eternal life to my sheep.’

At that time: Jesus said, ‘My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand. I and the Father are one.’

REFLECTION

The shepherds of the Old Testament led a lonely, dangerous life. Sheep were an important asset in the economy of their land. They needed to be on their guard against both human and animal predators. Some shepherds were hired hands, but others had close relationships with their flocks, they knew each one by name. They lived in the hills of the high country, beset by the conditions, heat in summer, cold in winter, their nights filled with the sounds of the wind, ever vigilant and far from human company, the smell of the sheep was strong and made them isolated by the nearby village communities.

Shepherds were the first to hear of the birth of our saviour. The wondrous song of the Angels calling them down from the hills to the village of Bethlehem and a wooden stall in a cave where the King of Kings was laid. We hear stories of shepherds throughout the Bible. Abraham had his flocks, Moses minded the flocks of his father-in-law Jethro, the well where Jesus met the Samaritan Woman was built for the flocks of Jacob and his sons. The parable of the lost sheep reminds us of the compassion of God who, forsaking the ninety-nine who are safe, leaves them to search for the one who is missing.

When Jesus says that He is the Good Shepherd he is announcing a message to His people, His flock. Many shepherds were hired men who had no bond with their sheep and when trouble came, they would disappear leaving the sheep to their fate. Jesus knows His sheep and they know Him. He does not run away but stays with his sheep, his people, and sees them through whatever may befall them. We hear his voice each time the Word of God is proclaimed. This is a tremendous gift that we sometimes take for granted; familiar stories often lose their impact through repetition. If Jesus appeared amongst us and spoke, we would be lost for words and cling to his message. He speaks to us in the Gospels, He is really present in the Word we hear at Mass; we must hold each sentence in our hearts, and it will feed us, as the Eucharist feeds us. Never lose your love for the Word for it is a gift from God that will guide, nurture and lead you to eternal life.

Kids Corner:

The Sheep and the Shepherd

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells us about His sheep. Do you know who His sheep are? We are His sheep! He loves us and protects us just like a shepherd cares for his sheep. And what do the sheep do in return? They listen to His voice and follow Him.

We also hear about Jesus being called the "Lamb of God." When He became man, He was like one of the sheep in God's sheepfold. But He was not the same as all the rest of us. He never did any sins Himself, but he died for us on the cross to save us from our sins. That is why at every Mass we say, "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world. Have mercy on us."

Now that Jesus is not visibly here on earth, He has left us another shepherd to care for His flock. Do you know who that is? It's the pope! God gives him grace to guide and protect the Church. Can you say a Hail Mary for Pope Francis today?
