INCLUSION POLICY

St. Bernard's Extra actively encourage children with special needs to join the Club. The staff liaise closely with parents and the school to ensure that adequate care and support is given to the special needs of the individual child.

Outside agencies will be contacted and advice sought to assist with any concerns raised by pupils and parents.

Any specialist equipment used during the Club hours will be serviced and maintained regularly in conjunction with the school.

Specific dietary requirements will be catered for in consultation with parents.
