Friday 27 May	Non Uniform Day – more info → School closes for half-term 3:10 pm

On Friday 27th May, we will be having a non-uniform day in exchange for a KS1 book to stock up our school library. It would be great if we could build a selection of stories and information books so that we have a variety for the children in school.

This week in School.....

We hope you loved the whole school photo that is now available to buy online – the deadline for ordering is Tuesday 17th May.

Dolphins had a lovely afternoon looking for God's creatures outside using the magnifying glasses that they had made. They drew some lovely pictures when they returned to class

Each year we ask parents to update their consents for the next academic year – this is now available to do so through the APP. If you wish to have a paper copy please contact the office. Thank you.

Congratulations to eight of our year 4 boys who won the Mid Lancs Football final - Ollie G, Stanley, Jamie, Lucas, Patrick, Tyler, Fabian & Sebastian - well done to all of you!

Today was the first assembly that parents / carers of children who have won "star of the week" were invited - to those that came hope you enjoyed it.

Does anyone have any old pots, pans or kitchen utensils etc they would be happy to donate to our nursery for the children to use in their mud kitchen?

Well done to all our children in Year 6 who have worked incredibly hard over the last few months & have now completed their SATs.

You can donate a book from home, buy a new book from the shop or maybe even support your local charity shop and choose one from there! As always, we thank you for your support with this. We couldn't do it without you!
