On Thursday 1st December, we will become part of the Mater Ecclesiae Catholic Multi Academy Trust. We will still retain our school name, school badge, school identity and our uniqueness but we will be part of a bigger Catholic family of schools.

Mater Ecclesiae (Mother of the Church) will initially consist of 7 Catholic Primary schools in Preston.

Our Lady and St. Edward's, St. Augustine's, St. Bernard's, St. Clare's, St. Joseph's, St. Teresa's and The Blessed Sacrament. Eventually, the intention is that all 23 Catholic schools in Preston will be part of Mater Ecclesiae. The Mater Ecclesiae motto is "One Family in Christ"

Some of our children travelled to Lancaster to meet the Bishop recently with children from other schools in the Mater Ecclesiae. The Bishop blessed the new Mater Ecclesiae logos which were then taken back to each school.

Good News!

Congratulations to Mrs. Stevenson who has won £28 in this month's 100 club draw.

Well done to Warren who was awarded "Man of the Match"

Bella & Lillie-Mai's parrot Joey has recently made the news for being football obsessed and chanting "It's Coming Home". Read the article here: <https://www.lep.co.uk/sport/football/world-cup/world-cup-2022-meet-joey-the-parrot-from-preston-he-thinks-its-finally-coming-home-for-england-3931438>
