

In Seahorses Class we take home spellings to practice our high frequency words & have handwriting practise.

Children also have two new reading books each week to read at home and discuss with a family member.

Homework in the Sharks Class.

In Sharks class, homework is given half-termly but spellings are sent home weekly for a test on Friday.