

Year 3 Geography

Settlements

What should I already know?

London is the capital city of England.

Geographical skills, knowledge and understanding

- To locate London
- To understand and compare types of settlement and land use
- To identify London as a major settlement in Tudor times
- Compare Tudor London with London today
- Identify the river Thames as a major trade link
- To give reasons for why London grew
- To use a variety of maps to compare London in Tudor times with London today

Vocabulary

- London
- City
- Capital
- Settlement
- Trade
- River
- Thames
- landmarks

What I will know by the end of the unit

- Where London is and that it is the capital city of England
- To list some similarities and differences between Tudor London and London Today
- To Identify some important landmarks that are the same: London bridge, River Thames, tower of London
- To give reasons why London grew
- The importance of the river Thames for trade
- Some places are more crowded than others in the UK
- The location of some main cities in the UK