Question	Prompt	Answer
How does the school know if children need extra help and what should I do if I think a child may have special educational needs?	<ul> <li>How do you identify children with special educational needs?</li> </ul>	Children in our school are assessed rigorously in a variety of ways. They are tracked by their teachers against age related expectations and National Curriculum objectives. School tracking of attainment indicates lack of expected progress over a period of time. If a child is not making steady progress and appears to be falling behind ago related expectations, concerns will be falling behind age related expectations, concerns will be raised by staff and fed back to parents in a mutual discussion.
		Observation of the pupil may indicate they have additional needs in their: Communication
		Cognition and learning Social, mental and emotional health Sensory/physical needs
	<ul> <li>How will I be able to raise any concerns I may have?</li> </ul>	If parents have concerns about any aspect of their child's progress then teachers are available to talk to at the end of the day, by telephone or by appointment. They may also speak to the Head Teacher (Mrs Smith) or Mrs Taylor who is the school's Special Educational Needs Coordinator. Mrs Nicholson (Pastoral Support Mentor) is also available every morning from 8.50-9.10am) We will always listen sympathetically to any concerns that you have, no matter

How will school staff support my child/?	<ul> <li>Who will oversee and plan the education programme and who will be working with my child and how often?</li> <li>What will be their roles?</li> </ul>	All pupils will be provided with high quality teaching that is differentiated to meet the needs of the learners. Mrs Taylor is the SEND co-ordinator for the school and will liaise with both teachers and teaching assistants. We work with outside agencies to ensure that appropriate specialist support is given. All teachers and teaching assistants are qualified to work with children either in small groups or on a one to one basis according to their needs. This normally happens daily during lessons and children will receive further support on a 1:1 basis if and when necessary.
	<ul> <li>How are the Settings' Governors involved, and what are their responsibilities?</li> </ul>	The Governors of St Bridget's Catholic Primary School meet on a half- termly basis to review the needs and progress of special educational needs children. The school has a designated SEND governor: (Mr Mark Newby) who evaluates the provision for SEN. He meets regularly with Mrs Taylor (SENDCo) and reports back to the governing body.
How will the curriculum be matched to my child's needs	What are the settings approaches to differentiation?	Differentiation happens within each class and tasks are matched accordingly to a child's ability but also aimed to provide challenge and discussion (particularly in Maths and English). Children who have learning difficulties are generally taught within their own year group with appropriate work set and support provided.
	• How will that help my child?	We strive to make every child have a sense of achievement to promote self-confidence and engagement. We aim to help children to catch up so that they are working in line with the age related expectations for their year group. This is done initially through quality first teaching and then specific interventions either individually or in small groups. If these interventions are not successful then outside agencies will be contacted for further support and advice with the permission of the parents.

How will I know how my child is doing and how will you help me to support my child's learning?	<ul> <li>In addition to the normal reporting arrangements what opportunities will there be for me to discuss his or her progress with the staff?</li> </ul>	Children with special educational needs will have regular feedback through SEN reviews. Parents will be invited to discuss their child's progress and for new targets to be set. Parents will also be able to access two parent's evenings per year as well as the annual school reports. Parents are free to discuss concerns with the class teacher at any time.
	<ul> <li>How does the school know how well my child is doing?</li> </ul>	Regular assessments will be carried out so that the school know what progress the child is making. These assessments will be done in a number of different ways, through practica activities, tests, observations, through discussions and through work done in class. Teachers meet and discuss children's progress on a regular basis, The Head-teacher and Governors monitor attendance and behaviour.
	<ul> <li>How will I know what progress my child should be making?</li> </ul>	Progress of your child will be discussed with you at your child's review meeting as well as at parent's evenings and in the written annual report.
	<ul> <li>What opportunities will there be for regular contact about things that have happened at the setting?</li> </ul>	Our school offers an open door policy to parents and all parents have regular access to teachers either face to face o via appointments made through the school office. Home- school reading diaries and Class Dojo are also used.
	<ul> <li>How will you explain to me how his or her learning is planned and how I can help support this outside of the setting?</li> </ul>	This will be done in a face to face discussion and also throug the written individual School Support Plan. Parents will be given resources and strategies to help their child outside of school. The school organises a number of parent workshops during the year, these are advertised in the school's newsletter and provide useful opportunities about how to support your child's learning.

What support will there be for my child's overall well-being?	<ul> <li>How and when will I be involved in planning my child's education?</li> </ul>	Parents will be invited to early discussions to support the identification of action to improve outcomes. If the review of the action indicates support is required ther the views of the parents and pupils will be obtained. Parent will be asked to help with their child's plan and will be invited to the review meetings.
	<ul> <li>What is the pastoral, medical and social support available in the setting for children with SEND?</li> </ul>	PHSE (personal, social, health and economic) forms part of our curriculum. We endeavour to provide pupils with the knowledge, skills and understanding to enhance their emotional and social knowledge and well- being. We operate a school nurture group run by trained and experienced Senior Teaching Assistants. Small group interventions are used to support pupil's well-being, resilience and interaction and social skills. Our Pastoral Support Mentor works closely with individual children on a 1:1 basis at times when they may need extra support emotionally.
	<ul> <li>How does the setting manage the administration of medicines and providing personal care?</li> </ul>	Pupils with medical needs will be provided with a detailed Health Care Plan. Parents/carers will be required to fill in th relevant paperwork and return it to school to allow our trained staff to administer medication.
	<ul> <li>What support is there for behaviour, avoiding exclusions and increasing attendance?</li> </ul>	We have a whole-school approach to behaviour management. We monitor attendance very carefully, if a child's attendance falls below 95% a letter will be written to the parents asking them to attend a meeting to discuss the issue if we feel it is becoming a concern.

	How will my child be able to contribute his or her views?	If the child is age appropriate their views will be sought, usually through the mediation of a trained adult. This will be done on a one to one basis and the views of the child recorded.
What training is the staff receiving or have completed to support children with SEND?	<ul> <li>Are there specialist staff working at the setting and what are their qualifications?</li> </ul>	Every member of school staff has Level 2 Autism training. Two members of staff are reading intervention trained. These programmes are delivered by trained teaching assistants. Every member of staff is First Aid and Safe- Guarding trained. The SENDCo attends the local termly SENCo forum. The Governor with specific responsibility for SEND has completed Governor training.
	<ul> <li>Do any other services work closely or in conjunction with your service?</li> </ul>	Speech and Language Therapists, Occupational therapists, Specialist teachers for Autism, Behaviour therapists and Educational Psychologists visit when necessary to assess and plan support for targeted pupils.
How accessible is the school environment?	<ul> <li>Is the building fully wheelchair accessible?</li> <li>Are there disabled changing and toilet facilities?</li> </ul>	Yes the building is fully wheel chair accessible. There is a disabled toilet but there are no specific changing facilities.
How will the setting prepare and support my child to join school or to transfer to a new school or the next stage of education and life?	• What preparation will there be for both the school and my child before he or she joins the school?	A planned transition day is offered in the Summer term to support pupils starting school in September. Parents/carers are invited to a meeting at the school and are provided with a range of information to support them in enabling their child to settle into the school routine. Home/school visits are carried out. Our local secondary school (West Lake Academy) offers enhanced transition sessions for pupils with specific needs from Easter onwards.

	<ul> <li>How will he or she be prepared to move onto the next stage (transition)?</li> </ul>	The SENDCo meets with parents of pupils who are known to have SEND to allow concerns to be raised. If pupils are transferring settings, the previous school records will be requested immediately and a meeting set up with the parents to identify and reduce concerns. The transition programme in place for pupils will provide
	<ul> <li>What information will be provided to his or her new school?</li> </ul>	opportunities for pupils and parents to meet staff in the new school. The annual review in Y5 for pupils with an EHCP begins the process where parents are supported to make decisions regarding secondary school choice.
	<ul> <li>How will you support a new school to prepare for my child?</li> </ul>	A planned and enhanced transition programme will be put into place for the child.
How are the settings' resources allocated and matched to children's special educational needs?	<ul> <li>How is the school's special educational needs budget allocated?</li> </ul>	The budget is used to provide equipment, training, 1:1 teaching assistant's time to support the children with their special needs and disabilities.
How is the decision made about what type and how much support my child will receive?	<ul> <li>In the decision-making process who will make the decision and on what basis?</li> </ul>	For pupils with SEN but without an EHCP, the decision regarding the support provided will be taken at joint meetings with the SENCo, class teacher and parent.
	<ul> <li>How will I be involved?</li> <li>How does the setting judge whether the support has had an impact?</li> </ul>	For pupils with an EHCP this decision will be reached in agreement when the EHCP is being produced or at an annual review. From targeted outcomes and evaluation.
