

Personal, Social and Emotional Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can talk about what they like and dislike about different celebrations • Keeps play going by using their own ideas or responding to others. • Begins to have their own friends who they can share their home experiences with. 	Communication and Language <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Joins in with repeated phrases from stories such as, 'Room on the Broom'. • Is beginning to ask questions of what they would like to know. • Learns new vocabulary linked to celebrations and festivals. 	Physical Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Beginning to hold no longer in a full hand grasp when mark making or forming letters. • Becomes aware of how to be safe, especially when celebrating events such as Bonfire night. • Attempts to dress themselves when dressing up as a character.
Literacy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can retell a past event in the correct sequence • Has an interest in books and has a favourite story • Is beginning to recognise familiar signs including their own name • Gives meaning to what they write or mark make such as a Halloween spell. 	Celebrations     (Halloween and Bonfire Night)	Maths <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are able to count objects that they can see • Can compare a group of objects and say when they have the same. • Can name some 2D shapes.
Understanding the World <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can join in with different routines and customs. • Talks about what celebrations or festivals they might celebrate at home. • Knows that computers can be used to find out information. 		Expressive Arts and Design <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uses their own experiences in their role play. • Creates pictures using different tools to make patterns, such as fireworks. • Can build stories around models they have made. • Joins in with songs related to the celebration.