

NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENT (including controlled assessment and coursework) POLICY 2025-2026

Reviewed on: September 2025

Next review: September 2026

What does this policy affect?

This policy affects the delivery of subjects of all qualifications which contain a components of non-examination assessment component, controlled assessments (where applicable) and coursework.

Purpose of the policy

This policy confirms the JCQ requirement that St Cecilia's RC High School has in place for inspection that must be reviewed and updated annually, a written policy regarding the management of non-examination assessments including controlled assessments and coursework, which includes details on how candidates' work will be authenticated.

Awarding bodies require each centre to have a non-examination assessment policy in place to:

- cover procedures for planning and managing non-examination assessments
- define staff roles and responsibilities for non-examination assessments
- manage risks associated with non-examination assessments

What are non-examination assessments?

(GCSE) Non-examination assessments measure subject-specific knowledge and skills that cannot be tested by timed written papers. There are three assessment stages and rules which apply to each stage. These rules often vary across subjects. The stages are task setting, task taking and task marking.

(VTQs) Non-examination assessment components assess candidates' knowledge, understanding and skills that may not readily be assessed by timed written papers. Non-examination assessment will take many different forms.

What is coursework?

Coursework components assess candidates' skills, knowledge, understanding and skills that may not readily be assessed by timed written papers. Coursework will take many different forms.
