- Taizé is a Ecumenical monastic community in France. It was founded in 1940 by Brother Roger Schutz, a reformed protestant.
- Taize has become one of the worlds most important sites of Christain pilgrimage. As a community Music is a key part of their worship. It emphasizes simple phrases, usually lines from a Psalm or scripture that is repeated and sometimes sung in canon.
- Jacques Berthier and later Josphe Gelineau wrote the music.
