Privacy Notice (How we use school workforce information)

The school is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to staff is to be processed. We do not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where necessary, third parties may be responsible for processing staff members' personal information. Where this is required, the school has in place checks regarding data protection requirements on third party processors. This ensures that your data is processed in line with staff members' privacy rights.

The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group
- contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)

Why we collect and use this information

We use school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid
- enable IT systems such as online payments, text messaging and staff onsite management

The lawful basis on which we process this information

The conditions for processing data under the GDPR will be:

Article 6

1. Processing shall be lawful only if and to the extent that at least one of the following applies:

- a) Data subject has given consent
- b) Necessary for the performance of a contract
- c) Compliance with St Cecilia's legal obligations such as School Census
- d) To protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another person such as providing medical information to emergency services
- e) For the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority invested in St Cecilia's RC High School
- f) Necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by St Cecilia's or by a third party

Article 9

1. Processing of personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation shall be prohibited.

2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply if one of the following applies: (j) Processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in accordance with Article 89(1) based on Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

(including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
