

Men in the Early Years: Robin Naylor

My name is Robin Naylor. I qualified as an early years teacher at the start of the 90s and worked in a variety of settings. I became Early Years Education Officer for Bradford Council and then head of Bradford's Early Years and Childcare Service. Now semi-retired I enjoy working directly with young children again, particularly in outdoor learning environments. I have seen a lot of exciting changes in early years provision over the past 25 but it's still a stark fact that we need to see significantly more men in the early years workforce.
