Dear Parents and Carers,

On Tuesday 23rd December, St Elphege's Church will hold its first Christingle Children's Service.

Families will be welcome from 3pm, to make their Christingle ahead of the service starting at 4pm.

The word 'Christingle' means 'Christ-Light', and each part of the Christingle represents a different part of God's love.

It would be wonderful to see as many families in church as possible. If you are able to attend, and your child would like to read, please let Mrs Sharpe know.

We look forward to celebrating our first Christingle service with you all. We hope it will become a new tradition within our church.

Kind regards,

Mrs Sharpe
