The Times Top 1,001 English State Primary Schools

St. Elphege's ranked as the 47th best primary school in England.

Dear Parents, Carers and Children,

I am writing to you today to celebrate the hard work of everyone in our school community.

Annually, The Times releases the league tables for primary and secondary schools in England. Within England there are approximately 17, 750 state funded primary schools.

The rankings are based on pupil outcomes at the end of Year 6 and St Elphege's have placed in the top 1000 for many years.

I am extremely happy to share with you that St Elphege's has placed at number 47 in the country.

To be recognised in the top 50 schools out of thousands across England is a remarkable achievement and a testament to the dedication of our entire school community.

I want to offer my congratulations to everyone who helps make St Elphege's such a wonderful place to learn and grow. This national recognition is something we can all be incredibly proud of.

Yours sincerely,

Mr L Hawkes
