Dear Parents and Carers,

This half term Year 5 have been enjoying Viking Boy by Tony Bradman both in English and as our spotlight author. We have arranged for the author to visit us at school on Thursday 15th October to share his stories, writing process and celebrating reading for pleasure. The workshop will be an hour long in class.

This is a wonderful opportunity for the children to meet, ask questions and feel inspired by an author in a fun and engaging way.

Workshop Details:

- Date: Thursday 15th October
- Cost: £5.30 per child
- Payment: Please make payments via the Arbor portal.

In order to confirm this booking with the author, we need to secure payment as soon as possible. If we do not have enough interest, we will not be able to go ahead with the workshop.

We hope your child will enjoy this hands-on experience and feel inspired by what they learn. Please ensure payment is made by Thursday 8th October.

Yours sincerely,

Year 5 team
