

Marcus Rashford

Marcus Rashford is a famous footballer. He is known for scoring goals, working with charities and for standing up for things that he believes in.

Did You Know...?

Marcus has worked with people who give food to families who don't have enough.

Early Life

Marcus was born on 31st October 1997. When he was a child, his family didn't always have enough food to eat. Marcus's mum wanted to help him to become a successful footballer so she asked if he could join a special programme when he was 11 years old. This would mean that he could live close to where he was training and be given the right types of food to eat. Although children usually can't join until they're 12, Marcus was allowed to join a year early.

Football Career

In February 2016, Marcus Rashford played in his first match for Manchester United's first team. In this match, Marcus scored two goals and his team won. Just a few months later, he played in his first game for the national football team for England.

An Important Letter

On the 15th June 2020, Marcus wrote a letter to the UK government. He shared his letter with everyone and it was read by lots of people.

In the letter, Marcus said that he was worried that there were lots of children in the UK who weren't getting enough to eat. He said that his mum had worked hard when he was younger but that it was still difficult to have enough food for the whole family.

Marcus was worried about a decision to stop a project that helped to give meals to children who are in school. He asked the government to think about what he had said and change their decision.

The next day, the decision was made to keep the project going. Marcus was pleased and says that he will keep trying to make sure that no child has to be hungry.
