Read the description of Zeus below.

Use this to help you draw Zeus.

Label the features described.

Zeus was a sky god who controlled thunder and lightning. He was a strong, striking man with a muscular body and long, curly hair. He had a short beard and carried his trusty thunderbolt at all times. He was also king of the gods and would sit on his golden throne at the top of Mount Olympus.

Apollo was the Greek god of knowledge. He has found the words below in the story.

He would like you put them in alphabetical order.

Once you have done that find out what each word means and write your own definition.

powerful

rubies

sobbed

condition

gown

pleaded

curiosity

spite

released

unbearable

fled

hope

trembling

infested

Now you know what these words mean, can you put them in to sentences of your own?

Make sure you use the correct punctuation and think carefully about spellings.
