

Year 1 Homework - Friday 20th November

Literacy

We will be learning about verbs next week. Verbs are action words and describe what someone is doing. Look at the pictures below and write about what is happening.

Can you think of any other verbs?

The monkey is sleeping.

Maths

Talk to someone at home about the words below. What do they mean? You could try drawing them if it's tricky to explain.

plus number sentence

add

part - whole model total

altogether

Geography

We will be looking at a map of the United Kingdom in Geography next week. Can you look at a map with an adult and find Teesside and Stockton?

Reading

Don't forget to read at home with an adult!

Please record each time you have read at with your child.

History

We will be comparing Queen Elizabeth II to Queen Victoria. Watch the video below about Queen Victoria.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/to-pics/zkrks/w/articles/zfdkhhbk>

What can you remember?
Can you write some facts or draw pictures about what you have learnt?

