

The Olympics

Aim

- I can learn about the past from sources including art.
- I can explain how the Olympics have changed over time and how they have stayed the same.

Success Criteria

- I can describe the modern day Olympic games.
- I can tell you why pottery can give us information about the Ancient Olympic Games.
- I can explain how important the Ancient Games were to the modern Olympic Games and say what is the same and what has changed.

Modern Olympics

What do you remember about the most recent Olympic Games?

What events can you remember?

Ancient Greek Olympics

The Olympics actually started in Ancient Greece. The different city states often fought but during the Olympics, peace was declared and everyone came together to enjoy the games.

The games began in 776BC in Olympia. It is believed that the games were a religious event to honour Zeus who was the king of the Gods.

Olympic Pottery

 How does pottery help us find out what happened?

Some of the evidence about the games comes from paintings, most commonly found on vases!

What event?

What are each of these events?

Look at the pictures of different Greek vases on your tables. What event do you think each vase shows?

Task 1 Ancient Greece Olympic Charades

Act out some of the Ancient Greek Olympic events. Ask a family member to try and guess which one you are doing! Don't forget to send us some pictures!

Task 2. The Legacy

What events do athletes compete in the modern Olympics that originated from the original Greek Olympic Games?

Complete the Venn diagram showing ancient events, modern events and events that are in both!

Task 3 Event Synopsis

Choose an Ancient Greek Olympic event.

Can you make a poster describing your chosen event? Write a mini description of what the event is and then draw a diagram to make it clear.
