English

Adding prefixes

Prefixes are a letter or group of letters that go at the beginning of a word. Adding a prefix usually changes the word's meaning

| Prefix | Meaning |
|----------------|------------------|
| auto | self |
| mis | wrong or badly |
| anti | Against opposite |
| re | again, back |
| im, in, ir, il | not, without. |
| dis | Not or non |
| un | not |
| pre | before |
| sub | under |

Please use spelling shed to practise your spellings.

Next week in English, we will be writing a formal letter of complaint.

Look at the BBC bitesize webpage and find out about the layout and language used in formal letters.
