Acting Headteacher: Miss. E. Shaughnessy

Monday 15th January 2024

Dear Parents/Carers,

We have now received the Ofsted report following the inspection that took place on 29 and 30 November 2023. We are delighted that the school was judged as a 'GOOD' school and rated 'OUTSTANDING' in both behaviour and attitudes and in personal development.

The report is overwhelmingly positive and I would like to thank all those who took part in the inspection: Mrs Dunne, staff, governors, parents and pupils alike.

One of the many positive comments in the report is that children's behaviour 'inside and outside of the classroom is exceptional' and that the 'school's ambitions for pupils' academic development are high'.

A copy of the report can be found on our website and will be published on the Ofsted website in eight days' time.

As always, we value your support, as parents and carers, because it is an essential part of the ongoing success of the school.

Yours sincerely,

Emma Shaughnessy
