

Key Learning

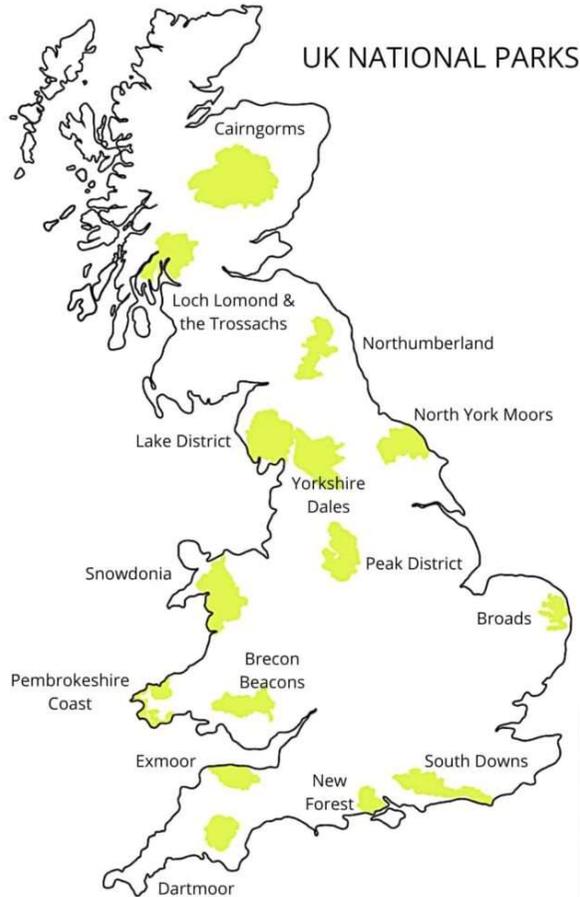

- Where is the Lake District located?
- What is a National Park?
What does the Lake District have in common with the other National Parks of Britain?
- What is the physical Geography of the Lake District like?
- What is the human geography of the Lake District like? Land Use
Why does the Lake District attract tourists?
- Survey- Why would people want to visit the Lake District?
Create a graph of results

Key Vocabulary

- | | |
|---------------|------------|
| Cumbria | Settlement |
| National Park | Slate |
| Protected | Rivers |
| Tourism | Lakes |
| Mountains | Transport |
| Hills | Survey |
| Mining | Land Use |
| Quarry | |
| Tourism | |
| Hiking | |
| Scafell Pike | |

Y3 Geography Summer 2
Why does the Lake District attract humans?
Key Concept: Place

Assessment Writing Task
Why does the Lake District attract humans?

Let's Remember! Place

- What are some of the physical and human features of Preston?
- What are some of the physical and human features of the North West?
- What and where are the UK countries and capital cities?
- What are the different types of settlement?

