

Y5 Geography Spring 2
How has UK land use changed over time?
 Key Concept: Time, Place

Assessment Writing Task
 How has UK land use changed over time?

Key Learning
 How has the Land Use in Preston Changed over time?
 See historical maps using Digimaps.
 How is the UK's rural land mainly used and has this changed?
 Is there a link between population increase and UK land use?
 How did the Industrial Revolution impact UK land use?

Let's Remember!
 Time, Place
 How does the weather change with the seasons?
 What are the key features of Preston?
 What are the human and physical features of the North West?
 Why do people visit the Lake District?

Key Vocabulary

- Agriculture
- Housing
- Factories
- Education
- Recreation
- Business
- Transport
- Retail
- Forestry
- Coastal
- Protected Land
- Urbanisation
- Employment
- Pastoral Farming
- Arable Farming

Key Facts
 In the 17th century, Preston was largely made up of fields and agricultural land. Now the land is mainly used for retail and housing.
 The UK's rural land is mainly used for pastoral and arable farming.
 The Industrial Revolution impacted land use as many people moved from small rural farming settlements to large cities to find employment.

