Our week at SJF began with a simple question 'What are you proud of yourself for?'

Whether it be achieving a goal, trying something new or overcoming a fear, each of us should be encouraged to feel pride in our own achievements and use that pride to build confidence and future success.

This year's theme for Black History Month UK is "Standing Firm in Power and Pride," - a tribute to the resilience, strength, and unwavering commitment to progress that defines the Black community across the globe.

The theme highlights the profound contributions made by Black people be they leaders, activists, or pioneers who have shaped history, while also looking towards a future of continued empowerment, unity, and growth.

Over the coming weeks of October, we will learn more about visionaries who have led political, civil rights, and social movements, as well as those who have broken barriers in business, education and the arts.

Black History Month 2025 will be a celebration of power and pride, inviting everyone to stand firm in both and continue the work of shaping an inclusive world.

'Together we grow in God's love, learning to be the best we can be.'

Love. Learn. Achieve.

Parent Prayer Group

It was disappointing that no parents or carers were able to attend last week. We hope that some of you will be able to join Mrs Davies this week for 15mins of reflection and prayer on Wednesday at 8:40am. Please come to the office to be taken to the prayer room.

Year 2 sharing their stories with each other. Sunny has visited some amazing places, what a lucky meerkat!

Over the Summer children from all schools in Merton were invited to take part in the Summer Reading Challenge.

Over 1000 pupils across the borough completed the challenge, reading books throughout their holidays and SJF are extremely proud to announce that Finn (3STHU) was selected as one of the 15 winners!

He was invited to the awards ceremony at the Civic Centre, where he was presented with his prize (a Nintendo Switch!!) by the Mayor of Merton. We hope that Finn's success will encourage more children to pick up a book and develop a 'love to read'.

THE GOSPEL IN CHURCH Sunday 12th October 2025

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, "Jesus! Master! Take pity on us." When he saw them he said, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." Now, as they were going away, they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, "Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner." And he said to the man, "Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you."
