As half term draws to a close you could certainly feel the love in the air this St Valentines day at SJF.

It has been a fantastic first half term of 2025 and I am very proud of all the hard work that the children have put in to their learning and the ongoing efforts of our brilliant staff team.

Thank you to all the parents and carers who attended parent/teacher meetings this week. I hope you found these useful in updating you about your child's progress and understanding more about how home and school can continue to work together to support your child's learning as we move in to the second half of the academic year.

When we return to school after the break, we will be nearing the season of Lent and look forward to the opportunities to reset and reflect that this will offer us all.

In the meantime I wish you all a fantastic half term holiday and the opportunity for at least some rest and relaxation.

See you all on Monday 24th February.

Enjoy reading this Sunday's Gospel

When Jesus and his disciples came down from the mountain, a great crowd came from all over to hear him teach and to be cured. Jesus fixed his eyes on his friends, the disciples, and said, "Blessed are you who are poor now, God's kingdom belongs to you. Blessed are you who are hungry now, because later you will have all the food you need. Blessed are you who are sad now, because later you will laugh. Blessed are you if people hate you and ignore you, and insult and attack you just because you follow me. Be glad and rejoice, because your reward will be great in heaven."

From the Gospel of Sunday 16th February 2025 Cf. Luke 6:17, 20-26 (the 6th Sunday in Ord Time, Year C)

Which words stood out for you in this Gospel, and why? What does the picture make you think about? Now enjoy exploring this Wednesday's word, which is TRUST.

Year 4 were invited to a potato person making competition as part of our PSHE lessons this week. They showed fantastic collaborative work and ensured everyone's voice contributed to the final outcome. Thank you to Mrs Aldred for being our judge!

Congratulations to St Scholastica class for being the Times Table Rock Star Champions!

They enjoyed a movie afternoon as their reward.

Yr1 loved planning, making and decorating their puppets as part of their DT topic.

They practised stapling, gluing and using safety pins to decide which method they would like to use to make their final puppet.
