

“Freddy the Frog needs to go on an adventure this weekend,” said Toby, holding up his class mascot.

“Great – I think we should camp by the lake,” said Mum.

“But it’s too cold,” Toby said.

“Nonsense,” replied Mum. “Billie and I will carry our warm things.”

Mum and Billie’s backpacks were huge. Toby’s was small – it had snacks inside and Freddy peeking out the top. He ran ahead. When they had pitched their tent and had some soup, Mum brought Toby a hot water bottle. “You’ll be warm with that inside your sleeping bag,” she said. “Is Freddy having a good adventure?”

Toby looked at the reflection of the moon on the lake. An owl hooted. “Oh yes.”
