Did you know raising funds for school is as easy as select, add to basket and check out?

Each time you shop on line for food, clothes, gifts etc you can raise funds for school without it costing you any more time or money..... How? Log onto www.thegivingmachine.co.uk

Have a look at the 'how it works' stuff and if you would like to participate click on the 'join as a giver' button and

Select St Johns The Divine as your donation cause-please type this its written above to ensure you select our school!

next

You can shop as normal by selecting the relevant retailer from the 'browse store' tab & the givingmachine site will arrange for the appropriate donation to the school account each time you complete and pay for your goods.

Sainsbury's

Jack Wills

As long as you log into www.thegivingmachine.co.uk before you begin shopping, each purchase will provide a donation as listed on the browse retailer page. You also can set desktop prompts to remind you if you want to.

No new ID's are needed existing on line accounts you have. The givingmachine site does not capture payment details as these should be encrypted by the retailer.

Why not take a look at the site -there are over 1500 retailers participating literally from A-Z.

Thanks for your support and happy shopping!
