

Water, Water Everywhere!

Can you create your own water wall? What will you need? How will you make it?	Paint anything you want using water colours! Why did you paint this?	Learn how to river dance!	Learn all about world water day! Can you write about why it is important?
Research the artist Hokusai and create a fact file about him. Can you create your own water art in the style of Hokusai?	Can you research about 5 animals that live in the ocean? Can you create a poster about these animals?	Can you make a boat that will float? Use only recyclable materials! Test it: investigate and record	Think about the value of water in our world... How can we show compassion for all God's children in ensuring that everyone has access to water?
Learn about the water cycle and create a diagram to explain how rain occurs!	Can you paint a water themed picture using the technique pointillism?	What is a tsunami?	Research the sport of Olympic Swimming- where did it begin? Famous Olympians? Record this however you would like.

Water, Water Everywhere!

- *You will find power points on the Water Cycle and Tsunamis on Twinkl.
- * You will also find prompt questions about Hokusai on Twinkl
- *Please find some examples of a water wall below...

