

Breath taking magnificent

Mythical Creatures

bloodcurdling

minute

Dragon

- Known in all parts of the world.
- Large reptiles with scales.
- Breathe fire.
- Eat humans.
- Live in caves.
- Some dragons can be good (guards).

Medusa

- Known from Greek myths.
- Half woman half snake.
- Tusks on mouth.
- Turns people to stone.
- Snakes for hair.
- Hands are clawed and made of brass.

Chimera

- Body of a goat, lion and a snake.
- Very big.
- Breathes fire.
- Destroys whole cities.
- Created to destroy people.
- Dangerous.

Water Sprite

- Helps with the changing of the seasons.
- Many different types.
- Fairy like.
- Can breathe water.
- Can get up to mischief.
- Happy spirits.

Unicorn

- One horned horse.
- Magical properties.
- White or silver linked to the moon.
- Horn has medicinal properties.
- Spiral shaped horn.
- Live in forests and woodland.

Griffin

- Half lion half eagle.
- Front legs have talons like an eagle.
- Beak is curved.
- Sometimes has a tail of a snake or a scorpion.
- Protects and defends things.
- Sometimes spotted like a leopard.

Cyclops

- One eyed monster.
- A giant creature
- He had enormous strength
- He had no fear of the Gods
- Breaks laws and rules
- They were unintelligent but ferocious.

A Thesaurus

- Not a mythical creature but a magical book.
- A bit like a dictionary of adjectives.
- A book of words to help you.
- Helps you find a better word.
- I'll show you...

Your Quest

- Choose a creature you have just read about.
- Write a description for your family without telling them what it is.
- Read your description to the them can they guess what it is?
- Use fantastic descriptions.
- Can you use a thesaurus to help you?

GO!