We were delighted to welcome local author, Amy Comerford, to St Joseph's this morning!

Amy shared her life story with our children and staff, she spoke about the events in her life, which inspired her to write and illustrate her book 'Lulu and the Feather.'

The children were presented with feathers to support the retelling of the story and worked together to create magic.

A special thank you to Amy for choosing St Joseph's as her first school to share her wonderful and inspiring story.
