

Dear Parents and Carers,

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. In this Sunday's Gospel, the leaders, the soldiers and the people all mock Jesus as God's Chosen One and as king.

Jesus' kingship is not one of military or political power, but one of love and mercy. Jesus forgave those who crucified him. He also showed mercy to the criminal who was sorry and called him to share in his kingdom - an offer Jesus also makes to us today.

Wednesday 16th November 2022

Pope Francis reminds us that, "In life we all make many mistakes. Don't be afraid to ask God for forgiveness. God is pure mercy." Each one of us receives mercy as a gift from God - it is a gift which we are called to share with others.

Enjoy a special time together this evening exploring this Sunday's Gospel and this Wednesday's word, which is MERCY.

THE GOSPEL IN CHURCH Sunday 20th November 2022

The people stayed there before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. "He saved others," they said, "let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One." The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.' One of the criminals hanging there abused him. "Are you not the Christ?" he said. "Save yourself and us as well." But the other spoke up and rebuked him. "Have you no fear of God at all?" he said. "You received the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus," he said, "remember me when you come into your kingdom." "Indeed, I promise you," Jesus replied, "today you will be with me in paradise."

Everyone can learn more about this Gospel in Church - all are warmly invited.

"Mercy is the very foundation of the Church's life. May every Church be a place of mercy." Pope Francis

Many people who came into contact with Jesus felt the healing power and joy of God's mercy. Today, the Church helps us to experience this mercy (especially through the Sacrament of Reconciliation) and encourages us to be 'merciful' to others - which brings us great peace.

1 Our Special Time Together

Enjoy reading the Gospel overleaf (or below for younger children)

While Jesus was on the cross, the leaders of the people insulted him saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One." The soldiers also mocked and made fun of him saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself." Above Jesus was a sign which said, 'This is the King of the Jews.' There were two criminals who were also on crosses alongside Jesus, and one of them said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus replied, "I promise you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

2 Wednesday's Word is ...

MERCY

3 Loving God & Each Other

"Read the gospels! This way we will learn what is most essential in our lives: love and mercy." Pope Francis

Mercy is a virtue. Ask your child what the word 'mercy' means to them. You may want to share with your child what the word 'mercy' means to you. Ask your child who they know to be a 'merciful' person. Can you or your child remember a time when you have been merciful - when you gave someone another chance? How did it feel?

"God is so merciful towards us. We too should learn to be merciful." Pope Francis

Each time we show 'mercy', we open ourselves to receive mercy from God. Being compassionate, being patient with others even if we are being treated unfairly, forgiving others (even if we feel they don't deserve forgiveness), sometimes giving people more than they deserve, these are just some ways of showing mercy. Is there someone to whom you could show mercy? Each of you choose one way in which you will try to show mercy at home, at school or in the community in this coming week.

Dear Lord Jesus, please help us to grow in the virtue of mercy - to be open to receiving your mercy and showing mercy to others. Amen.

Throughout the gospels, Jesus reminds us that God wants us to forgive and show mercy - just like he did. Merciful people do things out of their love and care for others and this helps make the world a better place.
