

Year 4 Active Learn Festival

A group of Year 4 children were chosen to represent the school as part of the Active Learn Festival at Durham University, Queen's Campus. The activities combined English, maths and physical education; throwing a ball of verbs, adverbs and prepositions, ordering different values of numbers and number/homophone relays. The children thoroughly enjoyed combining their love of learning with PE and had lots of fun!

