LOCAL AREA CONSENT FORM

At various times throughout the year opportunities arise to take the children out within the local area and Boroughs. This may include: St Michael's School, sports competitions, Norton Village, other local primary schools or Stockton Education Centre. Some of these visits will be on foot and at all times the children will be adequately supervised and pupil: staffing ratios recommended by the DFES will be adhered to.

Your permission is required for your child to take part in the whole range of these visits as they occur throughout the year.

In addition to this, please indicate your consent to photographs being taken of your child taking part in school activities for display in local publications and our school website. Please return the form as soon as possible.
