What to expect on an Army assessment day?

The image shows three overlapping presentation slides with a dark green background and yellow text boxes for the day headers. The slides are arranged from left to right, with the rightmost slide being the most prominent.

- DAY ONE
  - Introductory talk
  - Written tests – an essay and tests on general knowledge, current affairs and military knowledge
  - Psychometric tests – a measure of your cognitive and personality profile
  - Tutorial – a revision period in preparation for the planning exercise
- DAY TWO
  - Planning exercise
  - Outdoor tasks
  - Lecture – give a 5 minute talk and take questions from the group
  - Interview - you'll be asked about your experiences and interests, and why you are applying to be an Army officer
- DAY THREE
  - Multi Stage Fitness test
  - Command task – outdoor activities where you'll take turns to lead the group
  - Individual Task course – take on as many tasks as you can within a time limit
