

Yarrow Recommends!

Welcome to the first issue of the 2018-19 'Yarrow Recommends!' This newsletter will highlight a few books each half term that we feel your children will love. In addition to this, it will also direct you to some recently released books that children may enjoy and reviews of books children are currently reading!

New to the class library

Letters from the Lighthouse by Emma Carroll tells the story of twelve-year-old Olive Bradshaw and her little brother Cliff, who are evacuated to the Devon coast after months of bombing raids in London.

Desperate to be helpful, Olive becomes a post-girl, carrying secret messages. But Olive has a secret of her own. Her older sister Sukie went missing in an air raid, and she's desperate to discover what happened to her. And then she finds a strange coded note which seems to link Sukie to Devon, and to something dark and impossibly dangerous. A gripping adventure!

Mr. Broomhead recommends...

My must-read book of this half term is The Light Jar by Lisa Thompson, which tells the story of Nate and his mother who are running away, hiding out in a tumbledown cottage in the middle of a forest. When Mum heads off for provisions, and then doesn't return, Nate is left alone and afraid, with the dark closing in all around him...

But comfort can come from the most unexpected of places. Will Nate find the bravery needed to face the troubles of his present and ultimately illuminate the future? A story of fear and hope, loneliness and friendship: a must read!

These are some of the favourite's last years class had:

Why do we read?

Maz Evans, author of 'Who Let the God's Out?' and 'Simply the Quest.'

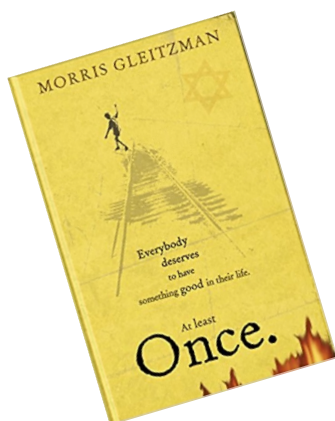

Maz Evans
@MaryAliceEvans

Following

Replying to @MrBoothY6

Reading is the rocket that will take you infinite worlds. Jump aboard xxx

11:17 AM - 22 Aug 2017

We are currently reading:

